It was authorised for issue on 30 August 2021.

The interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the same accounting policies adopted in the 2020 annual financial statements, except for the accounting policy changes that are expected to be reflected in the 2021 annual financial statements. Details of any changes in accounting policies are set out in note 1(b).

The preparation of an interim financial report in conformity with IAS 34 requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses on a period to date basis. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

This interim financial statements contain condensed consolidated financial statements and selected explanatory notes. The notes include an explanation of events and transactions that are significant to an understanding of the changes in financial position and performance of the Group since the 2020 annual financial statements. The condensed consolidated interim financial statements and notes thereon do not include all of the information required for a full set of financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs").

(b) Changes in accounting policies

The IASB has issued the following amendments to IFRSs that are first effective for the current accounting period of the Group:

- Amendment to IFRS 16, Covid-19-Related Rent Concessions beyond 30 June 2021

- Amendment to IFRS 9, IAS 39, IFRS 7, IFRS 4 and IFRS 16, Interest rate benchmark reform — Phase 2

None of these developments have had a material effect on how the Group's results and financial position for the current or prior periods have been prepared or presented in this interim financial report. The Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current accounting period.

2 REVENUE AND SEGMENT REPORTING

(a) Revenue

The Group is principally engaged in the retail and wholesale of liquefied petroleum gas (the "LPG"), compressed natural gas (the "CNG") and liquefied natural gas (the "LNG"). Further details regarding the Group's principal activities are disclosed in Note 2(b).

Disaggregation of revenue from contracts with customers by major products or service lines is as follows:

(b) Segment reporting

The Group manages its businesses by business lines. In a manner consistent with the way in which information is reported internally to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment, the Group has presented the following two reportable segments. No operating segments have been aggregated to form the following reportable segments.

- Retail: This segment principally generates revenue from the sale of LPG, CNG and LNG to vehicular end users by operating gas refuelling stations, industrial customers and bottled LPG end-users.

- Wholesale: This segment principally generates revenue from the sale of LPG, CNG and LNG to gas merchants.

Segment results, assets and liabilities

For the purposes of assessing segment performance and allocating resources between segments, the Group's most senior executive management monitors the results attributable to each reportable segment on the following bases:

Revenue and expenses are allocated to the reportable segments with reference to revenue generated by those segments and the cost of sales incurred by those segments. The measure used for reporting segment result is gross profit. Assistance provided by one segment to another, including sharing of assets and technical know-how, is not measured.

The Group's other income and expenses, such as staff costs, depreciation and amortisation, operating lease charges and other operation expenses, and assets and liabilities are not measured under individual segments. Accordingly, neither information on segment assets and liabilities nor information concerning capital expenditure, interest income and interest expenses is presented.

Disaggregation of revenue from contracts with customers by the timing of revenue recognition, as well as information regarding the Group's reportable segments as provided to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance for the six months ended 30 June 2021 and 2020 is set out below.

11 IMPACT OF COVID-19 OUTBREAK

In the first half of 2021, the novel coronavirus ("COVID-19") pandemic has slightly eased but with its recurrent outbreaks, bringing about additional uncertainties in the present and future Group's operating environment and possibly impacting the Group's operations and financial position.

The Group has been closely monitoring the impact of the COVID-19 on the Group's businesses and has commenced to put in place various contingency measures. The Directors confirm that these contingency measures include but not limited to reassessing the adequacy and suitability of the Group's existing suppliers' inventory of LPG, CNG and LNG, strengthening the supervision to the business environment of the Group's customers, and improving the Group's cash position by expediting debtor settlements. The Group will keep the contingency measures under review as the COVID-19 situation evolves.

With regard to the Group's business, the COVID-19 has negatively affected the operation and caused the decrease in the demand for LPG, CNG and LNG, but the Directors consider that such impact could be temporary, and the Group's businesses will resume soon upon the cessation of the COVID-19. In addition, the COVID-19 may impact the cash flow forecasts, and also impact the repayment abilities of the Group's debtors, which in turn may result in additional impairment losses on property, plant and equipment attributable to gas refuelling stations and trade receivables in future periods. The possible impacts after the reporting period have not been reflected in this interim financial report, and the actual impacts may differ from estimates adopted in these financial statements as the COVID-19 situation continues to evolve and when further information may become available.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

INDUSTRY REVIEW

When we look back at the first half of 2021 (the "Period"), with the steady progress in vaccination of novel coronavirus (COVID-19) (the "COVID-19") around the world and the successive lifting of lockdown in countries and regions, the COVID-19 pandemic (the "Pandemic") gradually eased off and the global economy continued to recover. In the first half of 2021, the GDP of the People's Republic of China (the "PRC") recorded RMB53,216.7 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 12.7% and an average growth of 5.3% in the past two years. On a quarterly basis it grew by 18.3% year on year in the first quarter and 5.0% on average in the past two years, and a year-on-year growth in the second quarter was 7.9% and the two-year average growth was 5.5%.

The gradual recovery of economy will effectively accelerate the growth of energy supply side.

In terms of liquefied petroleum gas (the "LPG"), due to OPEC's implementation of relatively strict production control and the stable production of U.S. crude oil, the demand for crude oil gradually improved and the oil price kept rising, which also led to the continuous rise in LPG prices. During the Period, the price of LPG as a whole presented a sharply volatile trend that rose at first, then slowed down and went up again. With the significant alleviation of the Pandemic at home, the production and consumption of LPG have increased, refinery operating rate has successively rebounded, and demand has gradually recovered. From January to May 2021, the apparent consumption of LPG in China was 28.3211 million tonnes, representing a year-on-year increase of 15.15%. As the global economy and industrial production gradually recovered, the growth of demand for LPG will remain relatively strong. During the Period, sales of wholesale business of the Group remained stable. LPG fuels for vehicles were affected by the progress of structural adjustment on transportation energy policy, which incurred a dramatic decrease in demand. At the same time, the upgrading of pandemic prevention and control in the Group's business area and the impact of safety inspection on end demand have spelled a small decline in the retail sector of vehicle end.

With regard to natural gas, its market demand was robust, and it grew by 21.2% year on year in the first half of 2021, basically reaching the 13th Five-Year average annual growth level. In particular, the consumption of gas for industrial use maintained a rapid growth, exceeding the level of previous years. 2021 is the first year of the 14th Five-Year Plan as well as the year to comprehensively launch Peak Carbon Dioxide Emission before 2030 and Achieve Carbon Neutrality before 2060 Action. The natural gas industry is bound to keep a steady growth. In medium-to-long term, the development of natural gas is still bullish. Natural gas is the most realistic choice in the development of low-carbon transformation, shouldering the mission of transiting energy consumption structure from fossil fuels to renewable energy. The 14th Five-Year Plan period will certainly be an indispensable window in the course of developing natural gas and natural gas will definitely have its niche in future novel energy system. During the Period, the Group's natural gas business will also grow steadily.

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group is an integrated LPG and natural gas supplier in the PRC with a complete industry chain that engages in the sales of LPG and natural gas and the operation of vehicular refuelling stations (車用加氣站) and domestic stations (民用站) in Guangdong Province and Henan Province with over 15 years of proven track records in the industry.

For the six months ended 30 June 2021, the Group recorded revenue of approximately RMB761.5 million, representing an increase of approximately RMB130.2 million from the revenue of approximately RMB631.3 million for the six months ended 30 June 2020. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to the increase in sales volume of compressed natural gas (the "CNG") and the increase in the unit selling price of LPG during the Period.

(1) LPG Business

LPG could be used as vehicle fuel but is also commonly used as fuel sources for cooking or heating appliances. As at 30 June 2021, the Group had 3 LPG vehicular refuelling stations and 2 LPG domestic stations in Guangdong Province. There was also an LPG terminal with storage facilities located in Guangdong Province. During the Period, affected by the structural adjustment on transportation energy policy and the Pandemic, the number of refuelling vehicles decreased drastically, which led to a significant decrease in sales and loss of a LPG vehicular refuelling station. Therefore, the Group closed the LPG refuelling station and is trying to convert the LPG refuelling station into a hydrogenation station in response to the government's policy.

The Group possesses a comprehensive business model in our LPG business. Our upstream procurement of LPG consists of large scale LPG domestic gas suppliers with their own terminal and storage which mainly import LPG from overseas, and domestic petrochemical refineries. With the delivery of our intermediary logistics (including vehicles or gas carrier ships designated for LPG use), the Group is able to provide LPG to our customers including LPG vehicular refuelling stations, LPG domestic stations and wholesale customers, and our customers consist of retail and wholesale customers. The Group also owns the LPG terminals through Jiangmen Xinjiang Gas Company Limited* (江門市新江煤氣有限公司) ("Jiangmen Xinjiang Gas"), a jointly-controlled entity.

For the six months ended 30 June 2021, the Group had recorded the LPG sales revenue of approximately RMB614.0 million, representing an increase of approximately RMB90.3 million from the LPG sales revenue of approximately RMB523.7 million in the corresponding period in 2020. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to the rise in the unit selling price of the LPG wholesale business.

(2) CNG Business

CNG is widely used in short-distance vehicles such as local buses, taxis and private vehicles. As at 30 June 2021, we had 12 CNG vehicular refuelling stations, 1 liquefied-to-compressed natural gas (the "L-CNG") vehicular refuelling station and 3 CNG mother stations in Henan Province.

The CNG business model is well supported by our upstream suppliers primarily consisting of PetroChina Company Limited ("PetroChina"), which utilises the West to East Gas Transmission Tunnel (西氣東輸管道) to supply to our CNG mother stations, with our own logistics fleet being the major logistic system for distribution to the location of our CNG vehicular refuelling stations and the locations of our customers while some of our wholesale customers may also arrange for their own logistics arrangement. Our downstream portfolio consists of CNG vehicular refuelling stations and our customers consist of a variety of retail and wholesale customers.

For the six months ended 30 June 2021, the Group had recorded the CNG sales revenue of approximately RMB113.6 million, representing an increase of approximately RMB39.4 million from the CNG sales revenue of approximately RMB74.2 million in the corresponding period in 2020. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to the increase in sales of CNG for vehicles and the rise in unit selling price during the Period.

(3) LNG Business

The liquefied natural gas (the "LNG") refuelling market in China is still at an emerging stage due to its relatively high cost to process, liquefy and store compared with CNG. With the support of the PRC government policies, the development and promotion of LNG in the South China and coastal areas has developed rapidly, especially with the rising demand for LNG in the industrial and power generation industries, which has laid a solid foundation for the growth of LNG. As at 30 June 2021, we had 2 LNG vehicular refuelling stations in Guangdong Province and 1 L-CNG vehicular refuelling station in Henan Province.

For our LNG business model, the Group possesses a strong upstream procurement suppliers formed by large-scale LNG terminal companies. As vehicles containing special cryogenic storage facilities and tanks for LNG use are required for transportation of LNG, the Group uses third party logistics service providers to transport our LNG to our LNG vehicular refuelling stations and to our wholesale customers. Meanwhile, the downstream portfolio consists of the LNG vehicular refuelling stations and our customers consist of retail and wholesale customers.

For the six months ended 30 June 2021, the Group had recorded the LNG sales revenue of approximately RMB29.3 million, representing an increase of approximately RMB1.5 million from the LNG sales revenue of approximately RMB27.8 million in the corresponding period in 2020. The increase in revenue was mainly attributable to the rise in the unit selling price of LNG during the Period.

As at 30 June 2021, we operated a total of 23 gas refuelling stations and 3 petroleum refuelling stations, of which 2 are jointly-owned gas refuelling stations.

As at 30 June 2021, the number of our refuelling stations in operation are set out below:

Notes:

1. Affected by the structural adjustment on transportation energy policy and the Pandemic, a LPG refuelling station of the Group located in Guangzhou City, Guangdong Province noted a significant decrease in the number of refuelling vehicles, which led to a significant decrease in sales and loss of the LPG vehicular refuelling station. Therefore, the Group closed down the LPG refuelling station and is trying to convert the LPG refuelling station into a hydrogenation station in response to the government's policy.

2. The two LPG domestic stations are owned by Jiangmen Xinjiang Gas, which is one of our jointly-controlled entities and is not our subsidiary.

3. It comprises one CNG mother station in Zhumadian City, Henan Province.

OUTLOOK AND PROSPECTS

With the effective implementation of pandemic prevention and control and the expanding scale of vaccination, China has made major achievements in preventing and controlling pandemic. As production was carried out orderly in social and economic sectors, China's economy has made steady progress in recovery. However, there are still uncertainties such as the uncertain prospect of the international energy market, increasing geopolitical frictions, patchy vaccination and the recurrent outbreak of pandemic. Rooting in the current situation and looking forward to the second half of the year, the Group will continue to implement the policy of safe supply, transportation, sales and storage, stringently carry out pandemic prevention and control measures and keep daily business proceeding in a steady and orderly manner.

In the second half of 2021, the civilian and industrial demand side of LPG will continue to be the main foothold of the Group's business. In the first half of this year, the outbreak of the Pandemic was sporadic in some cities, but the situation remained stable in most regions. Demand declined in the second quarter, but prices rose slightly in the off-season, buoyed by the strong rise in international crude oil prices. From the beginning of the third quarter, heating demand and deep processing operating rates will begin to improve. With the advent of the peak consumption season, the consumption of LPG in the second half of 2021 will have greater room for improvement than the first half. The Group will continue to anchor in the civilian and industrial demand side, actively expand the sales channels and customer management, seek innovative sales patterns, and further expand our sales scale.

The year 2021 coincides with the beginning year of the 14th Five-Year Plan. Under the influence of the double carbon targets, the energy mix will speed up its adjustment and the proportion of natural gas is bound to increase. In addition, with the slight alleviation of the Pandemic in China, the increasing marketised value of the industrial chain and the support of favourable policies and the construction of transportation and storage grids, it is expected that the second half of 2021 will see a gradual increase in demand for natural gas consumption. The Group will continue to integrate the business pattern of supply, transportation, storage and sales in the upstream, midstream and downstream with a view of taking every factor and aspect into consideration to promote the development of diversified terminal markets and deeply cultivate services and products so that our customers are targetedly served.

The Group has been endeavoring to explore the new energy field and promoting the transformation of business. The Group actively corresponds to the national and government's industrial policy of vigorously developing hydrogen energy and tries to transform the terminal refuelling station into a hydrogenation station. We have filed applications of 4 sites of hydrogenation station.

In the second half of 2021, the Group will adhere to the belief that constantly strengthening ability and enhancing quality in a practical manner can lead us to our goals and encourage our innovation. We will deeply root in the clean energy industry, remain alert to changes in domestic and international industries and focus on the innovation and expansion of business. We would like to join hands with our partners, employees and shareholders to create the future.
